

Nature

The Nature tile series is inspired by Bianco Statuario, one of the most precious, and now rare, Italian marbles to be found in the Carrara area. Originally known for its use in creating sculptures, attractive tables and paving historic Italian buildings, today the white marble essence is one of the major trends loved by interior designers worldwide. With veins that migrate from gray to black, on a bright white background, and available in four different sizes, Nature generates a classic, sophisticated and contemporary atmosphere in the eternal material of precious porcelain stoneware.
